Pastor's Column July 5 - 6, 2014

Vacation with God, not from God

By the time you read this column, we will have already celebrated our nation's Independence Day on July 4th and the summer vacation season will be in full swing. Summer is a great time for us to take some time off from our labors and to enjoy some rest and relaxation. Whether your idea of pleasure is camping in the wilderness, or traveling to a foreign country, or visiting family and friends, or just staying home and enjoying our own area by taking in the sun on Manhattan Beach or going to Coney Island to visit the Amusement Parks or to watch the Cyclones, a summer vacation is a wonderful way for us to recharge our batteries and refresh and renew ourselves.

It is important for us to remember, however, that there should be no vacation from God. All too often when our normal routine is interrupted, our time with God suffers. When we are away from home in an unfamiliar area, we tend all too easily to excuse ourselves from attending Sunday Mass. But in this day and age of smart phones and tablets and wifi hotspots and internet connectivity, not knowing where the nearest Catholic Church is or what its Mass schedule happens to be, is no excuse. Web sites such as masstimes.org or catholic-mass-times.com or www.thecatholicdirectory.com or just searching for Catholic Churches and Mass Times in your browser will give you the information you need.

Rather than vacation from God, why not vacation with God this summer? In our Gospel this weekend, Jesus invites us to spend some time with Him. He says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light" (Matthew 11:28-30). What better use can we make of the additional leisure time our summer vacation affords us than to spend some of it with God in order to allow Him to refresh and renew us.

Priests are required to make a retreat annually, but all of us, clergy and laity alike, can benefit by some extra time in prayer with the Lord who loves us more than we can ever imagine and only wants what is best for us. I will be going away on retreat the week of July 7th. Please pray for me, and be assured of my prayers for all of you. Fr. Bob

He shall proclaim peace
to the nations

SETTING ASIDE THE WEAPONS OF WAR

Why, we might ask the prophet Zechariah today, would God want to banish chariots and horses? The answer follows: because they are used to violate God's reign of peace, along with the warrior's bow. In the days of Zechariah, chariots and horses were high-priced items used only for war-making. They were the aircraft carriers and nuclear missiles of his day. And for his culture, which thought of any king as being a military leader first and foremost, a king riding on a lowly beast of burden to proclaim peace without horses, chariots, and bows would have set his listeners topsy-turvy. This lowly, beast-riding king of peace, we believe, was fulfilled in Jesus, gentle and humble of heart. In a world torn by military strife often generated by differing religious views, and even in our own lives and homes where we are often at "war" over the tiniest things, we would do well to stop and consider to what degree we are willing to be like that "king" whose way of gentleness and humility is the way for us to find rest for our weary souls.

LIVE TODAY

Live today the way you will wish you had lived when you stand in judgment before God.

FINDING PEACE
