TRINITY SUNDAY

“CLOTHING THE MYSTERY”

We try to express the mystery of the Trinity in human words. Perhaps considering the mystery through our relationships will help lead us deeper into it.

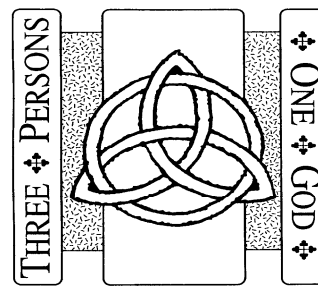

Today's Readings:

Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40

Psalms 33:12b

Romans 8:14-17

Matthew 28:16-20

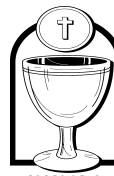

PURGATORIAL SOCIETY

Pastor's Column May 30-31, 2015

The Spirit of truth will lead you to all truth.

In my Pastor's Column last week I referenced two of the great TV defense lawyers, Perry Mason and Ben Matlock, whose abilities to uncover and reveal the truth reminded me of the Holy Spirit, whom Jesus called our Advocate who leads us to all truth. For this week's column I am tempted to use some of the great detectives and mystery solvers in literature like Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes or Agatha Christie's Hercule Poirot or Miss Marple for my analogy, since this weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, perhaps the greatest mystery the world has ever pondered.

But the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is not a mystery meant to be solved as much as it is meant to be entered into. In fact, there is a famous legend concerning one of the great Doctors of the Church, St. Augustine, who was attempting to understand and explain the mystery of the Trinity. St. Augustine spent over 30 years working on his treatise De Trinitate (about the Holy Trinity), endeavoring to conceive an intelligible explanation for the mystery of the Trinity. He was walking by the seashore one day contemplating and trying to understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity when he saw a small boy running back and forth from the water to a spot on the seashore. The boy was using a sea shell to carry the water from the ocean and place it into a small hole in the sand. Augustine approached him and asked, "My boy, what are doing?" "I am trying to bring all the sea into this hole," the boy replied with a sweet smile. "But that is impossible, my dear child, the hole cannot contain all that water" said Augustine. The boy paused in his work, stood up, looked into the eyes of the Saint, and replied, "It is no more impossible than what you are trying to do – comprehend the immensity of the mystery of the Holy Trinity with your small mind." The Saint was absorbed by such a keen response from that child, and turned his eyes from him for a short while. When he glanced down to ask him something else, the boy had vanished. Some say that it was an Angel sent by God to teach Augustine a lesson on pride in learning. Others affirm it was the Christ Child Himself who appeared to the Saint to remind him of the limits of human understanding before the great mysteries of our Faith.

Augustine ultimately relied on Scripture and an argument from grammar to understand and explain the tripartite nature of God. St. John tells us that God is Love. And Augustine says to have love, there must be a Lover, a Beloved, and the action of love. Since God Himself is the very embodiment of love, God must at the same time be the subject, object, and verb; that is, God is the Lover (God the Father), the Beloved (God the Son), and the love between them (God the Holy Spirit).

It is Jesus who reveals to us the triune nature of God. As we hear in our Gospel this weekend, he orders his followers, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "by sending his only Son and the Spirit of Love in the fullness of time, God has revealed his innermost secret; God himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and he has destined us to share in that exchange." It is by virtue of our baptism that we are invited to participate in the divine love. So don't wrack your brain too hard trying to solve the mystery of the Trinity. Instead, enter the love.

– Fr. Bob

We received a thank you note from Chris Bell of Good Counsel Homes. Our parishes contributed a total of $3,165.00 to help moms & children.

Chris writes:

"What a blessing for Good Counsel, thanks to all of you. You help not only by offering a home for the homeless, but food, medical care & special assistance for the moms to advance academically, socially, & professionally. Please know that you & your parish family are making it possible for us to continue offering these essential services to homeless pregnant women & their children."

2015-16

Forms were sent home with your child. Please return them in to the religious education office, rectory or in the collection basket in church. Forms are also available in the church and in the rectory.

The faith formation of your child does not end after your child receives the Sacrament of First Holy Communion, they should continue attending faith formation classes. Their catechesis continues as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation which is held in the 8th grade.

Registration for children New to the Program

Please contact the religious education office, 718-769-6311 to register your child. Leave your name and phone number if no one is available to speak to you. Your child's birth certificate and Baptism certificate (if baptized), and a deposit or payment in full are needed when you come in. If coming from another parish please bring transfer papers. You will be contacted to arrange an appointment.

Fee is $100 for 1 child, $180 for 2 children, and $250 for 3 children. Register your child before August 1 to avoid a $25.00 late fee.

REGISTRATION AFTER JUNE 30 can be done on line at our web site at: www.stmarkbrooklyn.org or forms can be picked up in the rectory or in the church.

Adult Confirmation classes will be held on Thursday evenings starting October 2015 please contact Ms. Pino for more information.

RCIA-Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a process who helps a person prepare to become a member of the Roman Catholic church, a process of inquiry, evangelization, prayer and study leading to reception of the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation. Also, for those who have been baptized but never received the sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation, classes are held on Sunday afternoons beginning in October 2015.

Volunteers needed

Catechists/instructors are needed to work with the children a few hours a week on Sundays beginning in September to help children learn about God. Helpers age 16 and older are always welcomed to help in the office on Sundays. Please leave your name and phone number at 718-769-6311.
